

LAs meet LG, demand restoration of statehood post abrogation of Article 370. It was a meeting in our personal capacity," Bhukhari, who was the Finance Minister in the PDP-BJP coalition government, told PTL.

'Re-examine policies'

The leaders said to win over the confidence of the people of Jammu and Kashmir, the Centre will have to re-examine its decades-old policies vis-a-vis Kashmir and allay the apprehensions among people in a just and humane manner.

Depending solely on security measures and dealing with peoples' political aspirations through the law and order prism will always have its old tested repercussions, they said.

"Since the revocation of Jammu and Kashmir's special status embedded in Article 370 of the Indian Constitution and bifurcation of the State into two Union Territories — Jammu and Kashmir with a legislature and Ladakh without one — the majority of its residents are yet to reconcile with this decision," the memorandum read.

"For the residents of J&K, the issue of statehood holds more emotional importance than legal. Statehood for these people is solidification of the idea of pluralism and respectful coexistence. In view of keeping the pluralistic ethos and diversity intact, it is more than essential that restoration of Statehood to J&K is considered as an immediate requirement for keeping up the spirit of coexistence and allowing this mosaic to continue to shine in this part of the country," it said.

"We demand restoration of statehood including the establishment of a Legislative Council and in providing reservation of seats for socially and economically backward classes, art and culture, languages, literature and sports"

"We demand restoration of statehood including establishment of a Legislative Council and in providing thereto reservation of seats for socially and economically backward classes, art and culture, languages, literature and sports," it added.

Economic development

The memorandum said that economic development can be ensured only if there is normalcy and stability in the region.

The delegation also demanded the restoration of J&K Bank's functional dominion, reviving agriculture and horticulture sectors, support for the industry and manufacturing sector, tourism and allied industries and their revival.

They also sought relief for general trade including shopkeepers, bus and taxi owners, addressing unemployment and restoration of internet services.

AP's capital woes: Nara Lokesh, others detained in Vijayawada for protesting with farmers

SIAN NEWS INTERNATIONAL

Amravati/Vijayawada, January 7

The police on Tuesday detained Telugu Desam Party (TDP) general secretary Nara Lokesh and party MLA Madde Rammohan in Vijayawada while they were protesting along with farmers asking that Amravati be made the only capital of Andhra Pradesh.

The TDP leaders alleged that they were detained in order to stop them from attending the 'Highways blockade' programme. Nimmala Rama Naidu and Kollu Veendra were also detained by the police.

Before detention, Lokesh expressed solidarity with farmers' agitation against Chief Minister Jagan Reddy's government's decision to have Amravati as the only capital of the State. The government would roll back its idea of Amravati as the only capital, he said.

Further, TDP chief and

Locals in Thullur, Guntur, took out a procession on Monday demanding that the capital not be shifted from Amravati former Chief Minister N Chandrababu Naidu expressed fury over the house arrests of party leaders in Krishna and Guntur districts.

In a press release, he said: "Thousands of families are agitating on the roads for the capital, TDP leaders are trying to go to extend support to the farmers and agricultural labourers. It is undemocratic to prevent them from meeting with farmers.

The illegal detention of hundreds of TDP leaders is the height of dictatorial behaviour of the YSRCP government." Demanding the release of party leaders, he said: "The filing of illegal cases on agricultural labourers is highly condemnable. No government can suppress the public with the police force. We demand that all the arrested be immediately released and false cases be removed."
