

Stephan von Schuckmann

Member of the Board of Management of the ZF Group

Materials Management

Asia-Pacific Region

Electrified Powertrain Technology

After completing his studies in Business Administration with a Master of Commerce from Macquarie University in Sydney, Australia, he started his professional career in 2003 at ZF Group. He held various management positions and moved in 2015 to the Car Powertrain Technology Division as Senior Vice President for Finance, IT and Process Management before taking over as head of the division in 2018.

Stephan von Schuckmann has been a Member of the Board of Management of the ZF Group since January 2021. He heads the Electrified Powertrain Technology division and is responsible for the Asia-Pacific region and group-wide materials management while being based in Asia.